

Sacristan

Stewardship opportunity: To set up for Sunday Masses by preparing books, vessels, offertory and liturgical ministers as needed.

Talent/Gift to offer: A reverence and love for the Eucharist, desire to help prepare for celebrating liturgy well and organizational skills.

Time commitment: Sacristans undergo a brief training session prior to starting the ministry. After training, sacristans serve at weekend Masses on a rotating basis one or two times a month. To properly fulfill duties, the sacristans should arrive at church at least 30 minutes prior to the liturgy.

Treasure/Blessing received: Enabling the priest an opportunity to prepare spiritually before mass and assuring that everything is prepared and ready for the faith community to celebrate liturgy well.
